

Program ENPEN symposium:

Acute Flaccid Paralysis and Enterovirus D68: December 13th 14:30 -16:30 CET

Title	Speaker	Affiliation	Duration	Time
Welcome and Intro ENPEN	Heli Harvala & Thea K Fischer	Nat. Microbiology Services, Blood and Transplant, Colindale, UK./ Nordsjællands Hospital/University of Copenhagen, DK	10	14:30-14:40
EV-D68 situation in EU on behalf of ENPEN	Kim Benschop	RIVM, Netherlands	15	14:40-14:55
Acute flaccid paralysis – “old syndrome requires new awareness”. Experience from a European neurologist network.	Jelte		15	14:55-15:10
Q & A session with presenters			15	15:10-15:25
BREAK				15:25-15:30
Introduction of AFM Working Group, Overview of AFM Awareness Efforts with AAP/CDC, EV-D68 Research/Surveillance Efforts in US	Kevin Messacar, MD, Associate Professor of Pediatrics	University of Colorado /Children’s Hospital Colorado, USA	10	15:30-15:40
Status and most important findings in US Surveillance of EV-D68	Claire Midgley	Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Atlanta, USA	10	15:40-15:50
Lessons learned in US Surveillance of Acute flaccid paralysis.	Adriana Lopez	Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Atlanta, USA	10	15:50-16:00
EV-D68 Surveillance Sequencing Updates US/Global	Heba Mostafa/Amary Fall	John Hopkins University, Washington DC, USA	10	16:00-16:10
Q & A session, panel of presenters			15	16:10-16:25
Wrap-up meeting – take home messages	Heli Harvala & Thea K Fischer	Nat. Microbiology Services, Blood and Transplant Colindale, UK./ Nordsjællands Hospital/University of Copenhagen,DK	5	16:25-16:30