

Encephalitis 2026 the go-to conference in encephalitis

7th & 8th December; London, Royal College of Physicians

In-person and virtual attendance

KEYNOTE AND GUEST SPEAKERS:

Dr Irene Cortese, USA "Immunotherapies for Infectious Encephalitis"

Dr Jamil Said, Kenya "Where You Live Shouldn't Decide if You Survive: Encephalitis in Low- and Middle-Income Countries"

Professor Soon-Tae Lee, South Korea "When Antibodies Are Absent: Progress and Priorities in Seronegative AE"

Sophia Rekers, Germany "From Acute Care to Real Life: Improving Outcomes That Matter to Patients"

Day 1(full day): Basic clinical overview of infectious and autoimmune encephalitis; Clinical case panel; Data-blitz poster presentation (13 sessions); How to get your grant/fellowship session

Day 2 (full day): Four keynote and guest lectures; 12 oral presentations; One neuro-quiz session

Full Programme available now: www.encephalitis.info/encephalitis-2026-programme

To book your place, please visit www.encephalitis.info/encephalitis-conference

- Reduced rates available for Encephalitis International Members (www.encephalitis.info/professional-membership/)
- Virtual Conference platform open for 60 days after the Conference
- Two drinks & networking receptions
- CPD points awarded
- Two guided poster presentation tours
- Discounted tickets for students; Free tickets from participants from low and lower middle income countries.